Andrews University Bulletin
2000-2001

Berrien Springs, Michigan

Admission to Andrews University is available to any student who meets the academic and character requirements of the university and who expresses willingness to cooperate with its policies. Because Andrews University is operated by the Seventh-day Adventist Church, the majority of its students are Seventh-day Adventists. However, no particular religious commitment is required for admission; any qualified student who will be comfortable within its religious, social, and cultural atmosphere may be admitted. The university does not discriminate on the grounds of race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, gender, marital status, or physical challenge. On request it makes available to the public its annual financial report. To obtain a copy, contact the Office of the Vice President for Financial Administration at the address below.

Every effort has been made to assure the accuracy of information in this bulletin. Students are advised, however, that bulletin provisions do not constitute a contract between a student and Andrews University and that attendance at Andrews University is a privilege and not a right. The university faculty and administration reserve the right to make and give public notice of such changes as deemed necessary during the period for which this bulletin is in effect.
