

EDFN607

(2-3)

Educational Philosophy

An examination of educational philosophy through literature from ancient times to the present; the application of principles in the contemporary setting. Students are encouraged to develop a student to play an important part in the development of an individualized plan of study and development.

The Leadership Program builds important bonds among its participants. The participants become partners in learning, both with faculty members and with other participants. This process is enhanced by involvement in orientation activities, seminars, study groups, and through continued contact and discussion via the

5. A reflective researcher with

