

The University

HE N I E R I

Andrews University is a Christian university in the Seventh-day Adventist tradition. It encourages its students to study, practice, and develop an active religious experience. By corporate worship, community service, and a common concern for all, Andrews University students are led to develop a philosophy that makes them Christian not just in name, but in action.

The university is comprised of the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Technology, the School of Business, the School of Education, the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, and the Division of Architecture. The College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Technology, the School of Business, and the School of Education have both undergraduate and graduate programs; the Seminary and Architecture, only graduate programs. The graduate programs for the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Technology, the Division of Architecture, the School of Business, and the School of Education, and the academic programs of the

INTERNATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Each year, students from 80-100 different countries enroll at Andrews University. More than 20% of the students come from other countries. This places the university among the top level of small American universities with high percentages of international students. One experiences the reality of a multicultural world while attending college.

Students who wish to immerse themselves fully in American culture may enroll in the English as a Second Language (ESL) program of Adventist Colleges Abroad (ACA) on the Andrews campus.

Students may receive individual assistance in evaluating career goals, choosing majors and minors, obtaining co-op or internship experience, identifying possible employers, and planning job-search strategies.

Center for College Faith

The Center for College Faith, which is open to all members of the Andrews University faculty, seeks to help faculty better understand and foster the faith development of college undergraduates. The stated mission of the Center is twofold. Specifically it acquires and disseminates knowledge about how college students develop in their Christian beliefs, values, and lifelong commitment to God, especially in relation to direct academic experience; and promotes the growth of a distinctly Christian undergraduate "culture of learning" informed by careful scholarship on the Andrews University campus.

Center for Distance Learning & Instructional TechnologyJames White Library, Room 304*471-3960

The Center for Distance Learning & Instructional Technology (D.L.I.T.), offers assistance to students who want to take correspondence, on-line, video-based, and audio-based courses and/or work towards a distance degree. The D.L.I.T. also has a lab for faculty and staff to assist with their technology needs. More info: www.andrews.edu/dlit.

Center for Intensive English ProgramsNethery Hall*471-2260

The Center for Intensive English Programs offers classes in writing, grammar, reading, and oral/aural communication for students whose first language is not English and who do not meet English proficiency requirements for regular admittance to university classes. The CIEP also coordinates a program for testing English-language proficiency using the MELAB (Michigan English Language Assessment Battery).

The Center operates the Adventist Colleges Abroad (ACA): English program. This program in English as a Second Language gives international students an immersion experience in American culture as well as English. Language classes include all skill areas and preparation for TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language). Out-of-class activities, such as sports events, dining out, shopping, trips to major cities, and everyday conversational training are an important part of the program. English-speaking students accompany international students on activities and are paired with them as roommates.

The Center for Youth Evangelism (CYE), an organization of the Theological Seminary, provides creative youth ministry programming and resources throughout the North American Division (NAD). It offers a variety of services to seminarians, pastors, conferences, and churches.

The CYE provides youth ministry training through workshops, seminars, and major training events. It evaluates and produces youth ministry materials, and promotes study and research in youth ministry. Current evangelism programs include domestic mission trips, an Easter Passion Play, International NAD Camporees, an Internet Radio Station, YOUTH (leadership newsletter), etc. More info: (800)YOUTH.2.U or www.AdventistYouth.org.

Center of Continuing Education for MinistrySeminary Hall, Room N226*471-3514

The Center of Continuing Education for Ministry (CCEM) is a branch of the Theological Seminary. It serves the General Conference Ministerial Association, the North American Division, and other organizations of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. It provides continuing education for persons currently working in Adventist ministry. It also serves Adventist administrators, lay leaders, and, to a limited degree, ministers of other Christian organizations.

It tries to identify the needs and issues that affect the professional growth of Adventist ministers and develops continuing-education courses that provide certificates and continuing-education units. It serves church organizations as an accrediting, monitoring, and registering agency.
