

workers or their dependent children to attend colleges in the North American Division and makes financial payments from denominational funds on behalf of such students directly to the college concerned, the college will match dollar for dollar with the sending division, up to 25% of undergraduate tuition. If the person also receives a Federal or State scholarship (or grant), the school may reduce this discount in direct proportion to the amount of such scholarship. Such remittance must come through the division and on approval of the division committee” (North American Division Working Policy, F 80 15).

Retiree Tuition Discount. A retired person who has reached age 65 may receive a 50% tuition discount for up to three undergraduate or graduate courses per year.

Former Andrews University employees who have retired may receive a 75% tuition discount. Admission to limited enrollment courses is contingent upon space available in the class, with preference being given to students paying regular tuition rates. Any additional class fees and/or supply fees are the responsibility of the student.

This discount applies to credit, audit, or non-credit classes. This discount does not apply to independent study, directed reading, private music lessons, practicums, clinical experiences, or any instruction outside of the normal classroom setting. Application for this 50% or 75% discount should be made to the dean of the school involved. The dean then authorizes the appropriate discount.

Students eligible for this reduction are not eligible to receive any other Andrews discounts or discretionary funds.

Theological Seminary

Doctoral Students. Students who have completed all course work in an approved doctoral program must register for 1-6 credits under GSEM796 DMin project/ Dissertation or 1-12 credits under GSEM995 PhD-ThD Dissertation, or 1-14 credits under RLED 995 Doctoral Dissertation. If the candidate does not complete the dissertation, he/she must register for GSEM788 DMin Dissertation Continuation or GSEM888 Doctoral Degree Continuation until the dissertation is completed to qualify for status as a full-time student. Confirmation by the dissertation chair that full-time work is being done must be sent to Student Financial Services.

Master’s Students. To obtain full-time status for the MA degree, the student must register for GSEM688 Master’s Degree Continuation after he/she has registered for the allowable thesis credits but has not finished the work. Confirmation by the dissertation chair that full-time work is being done must be sent to Student Financial Services.

Students should read the General Information (p. 68) and Satisfactory Academic Progress sections (p. 70, 71), to determine their eligibility for financial aid.

Federal Direct Loans are available to graduate students. To apply for this aid, refer to p. 70, General Information, and the Financial Aid Chart, p. 77.

Students from the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Business, and School of Education are eligible to apply for the Michigan Tuition Grant (with the FAFSA) if they are independent students who have resided in Michigan since June or before of the year preceding the enrollment year or if they are dependent students whose parents have resided in Michigan for the same period of time. Students enrolled in the Seminary and Religious education degrees are not eligible for the Michigan Tuition Grant.

For financial aid eligibility, graduate students must meet the rules in the following two areas:

- Enrollment Status—Students must be accepted into a curriculum authorized by the faculty of their respective school. Students enrolled on PTC status (permission to take classes) are not eligible to receive financial aid.
- Course Load—Students are awarded financial aid based on their percentage of full-time enrollment as defined in “Class Loads and Financial Aid” on p. 69. Special regulations apply to students who have completed all course work and are preparing theses, projects, or dissertations.

College of Arts and Sciences, College of Technology, School of Business, and School of Education

Students who have completed all course work in an approved graduate program may not have completed all work needed to complete a degree. Upon recommendation of the student’s committee chair or departmental chair, the dean of the school may determine the student to be enrolled full time provided the student:

1. Has enrolled for the required number of project, thesis, or dissertation credits but has not completed the work.
2. Is enrolled in PTH883, PTH884, EDPC810 or EDPC820 (Internship).
3. Is enrolled in FDNT594 (Practicum). In addition, doctoral-level students must enroll for Dissertation Continuation or EDPC810/820; master’s-level students must enroll for Project or Thesis Continuation, EDNT594, or GCAS650 to qualify for this status.

Student Financial Services forms need not be completed for students to apply for the Andrews graduate grant or scholarship; students must apply directly to the graduate dean or department head of the school/program. All aid received by the student (except assistantships), however, is taken into account when determining eligibility for a student loan and a Michigan Tuition Grant.

Grant, scholarship, and assistantship funds are available through the offices of the various academic deans and department chairs. Grants and scholarships are gift aid; however, if a student is given an assistantship, this is considered to be employment and is processed through the Student Labor Office. Application forms, if required, must be requested from and returned to the respective dean’s office. The student does not need to complete any application paperwork for Student Financial Services to apply for and receive institutional funds unless they are applying for the Andrews University Loan Program.

Education Majors’ Debt-retirement Assistance. Education majors (K-12) who have had to borrow funds to finance their conferences within the Union. As much as $1,500 may be paid at the rate of $500 during each of the first three years of teaching. Students should contact the Superintendent of Education of the conference or the principal of the academy in which they wish to teach.

Seminary Emergency Aid Fund. This emergency aid fund is available to seminary students for emergency relief only and is not a form of continuous financial aid. Students may apply for assistance through the seminary dean's office.

Work opportunities for graduate students are available through the university's Employment Office. Assistantships are available as arranged by the dean or department chairs of the school where the student is enrolled. For information regarding employment contact the Employment Office.

Graduate students coming to the University from the United States, Canada, or overseas may be reimbursed for part of their travel expenses if certain criteria are met. For information, contact the Student Financial Services Office.
