

based on less than credits of prior undergraduate or advanced studies are prorated at a ratio of . : .

v 7 U D Q V I H U

Items to Submit. In addition to submitting the items required of all graduate students (see pp. –), applicants to the PhD in Religious Education must also submit v $ Ý x x Z R W G W R I S X Q V Z K H E I Q F O X V K H V U mission statement, a description of the journey that created a desire to pursue doctoral studies, and a vision of the professional accomplishments they foresee.

v $ Û x x Ú R U G H V F U I R S W L R I Q R I D Q W H B H V W dissertation research and an explanation of this choice.

v $ V L J Q L I U F D R D S K V H S D S M U K H R U V H D U F K report), normally written during the master's level studies. This paper should give evidence of the applicant's ability to carry out research and to present the results and conclusions of such work in standard English and in a professional manner.

Prerequisites.

