

Dear Friends of the Math Department,

I have been blessed to be a part of this department for many years, and now my colleagues have trusted me to serve as chair of the most collegial department on campus. Dr. Shandelle Henson is returning to more teaching and research but will continue as Associate Chair, especially in