

Important Terms

Learn the following words and what they mean for this project.

The study of the world to learn how and why it works

A new solution or device to solve a problem

A person who solves a problem by creating an invention

A person who uses science to create things that solve problems

The steps engineers use to find solutions

Unlike anything else, unique

To study and learn about something

Something that must be done or completed

A detailed plan for how something will work and what it will look like

A model of the design to prove that it works

Change something in a way that makes it better

Experiments to see how well something works

Working with other people