

INTERVIEW WITH L. ROO MCKENZIE SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP IN SCHOOLS

Jaret Ledesma (JL): Please tell me about your journey as it relates to spiritual leadership?

L. Roo McKenzie (LR): I was born in a Christian family and the experience of growing up with a biblical worldview made an indelible impression on my life. However, being in a religious home did not make me a spiritual person. I accepted Christ as my personal Savior when I was 12 years old, and that has been the best decision I have ever made.

be revered, obeyed, and cherished. I have allowed the Divine agencies to have first place in the entire talk. People are very discerning and can easily tell when the talk from leadership about spirituality is just empty talk. Second, sele